Transportation

Public transportation is an easy and convenient way to get around. A regular ticket is a single trip ticket. It is possible to buy two/three days-tickets as well. You can buy your ticket in ticket machines, which accept Danish cash and the most common credit cards, or at 7 Eleven kiosks at the train and metro stations. In Copenhagen Airport arrival hall and at Copenhagen Central Station there is a DSB ticket office as well as ticket machines.

From Copenhagen Airport you can reach the city centre in a number of ways:

- By train (travel time: 15 minutes): trains stopping at Hovedbanegården (Copenhagen Central Station) and Nørreport Station.
- By metro: line M2 (→ Vanløse) stopping at e.g. Nørreport and Kongens Nytorv Stations leaves every 4–7 minutes.
- By bus: Line 5A (→ Husum Torv) stopping at, e.g., Hovedbanegården (Copenhagen Central Station), Rådhuspladsen (City Hall Square) or Nørreport Station
- By taxi: the trip to the city centre costs about 280 DKK

From the city centre to the Faculty of Humanities, you have the following options:

- By metro: by far the easiest option. Take line M1 (→ Vestamager) to Islands Brygge Station (as indicated on the map above). From there, it is 5 minutes' walk to the campus. Going back, catch line M1 again (→ Vanløse)
- By bus: get off at Universitetet, Amager. Keep walking straight on for 200 metres to get to the new faculty buildings: Line 33 (→ Søvang / Rønnevej) from e.g. Rådhuspladsen (City Hall Square); departures every 10–15 minutes

More information on public transportation may be found at:

For any further information please do not hesitate to contact Matilde Serangeli (qcs496@hum.ku.dk).

We look forward to welcoming you in Copenhagen.

Best regards,

Matilde Serangeli (qcs496@hum.ku.dk) and Thomas Olander (olander@hum.ku.dk)
